

Easier baiting with new 1080 courses

The Livestock Health and Pest Authorities have developed a new shorter training course which will allow landholders to use 1080 and Pindone baits on their properties.

LHPAs across the state are now offering a three-hour course to give landholders a clear understanding of 1080 and Pindone use and their legal obligations.

For information about courses, please contact your local office.